

Name: _____ Date: _____ Score: _____ / 30

Reading Comprehension Test

Fablehaven: Grip of the Shadow Plague

by Brandon Mull

Directions: Circle the letter of the best answer for each question.

Section 1: Easy

1. What danger begins spreading through Fablehaven in this book?

- A. A curse that traps the Sorensens outside the preserve
- B. A wildfire that burns the preserve's magical forest and forces every caretaker to evacuate
- C. A shadow plague that changes light creatures into dark ones
- D. A spell that makes every magical creature fall asleep

2. Which secret group recruits Kendra during the story?

- A. The Knights of the Dawn
- B. The Council of Hidden Fairies
- C. The Caretakers' Guild
- D. The Society of the Evening Star

3. What magical preserve does Kendra visit away from Fablehaven?

- A. Stormguard Castle
- B. Obsidian Waste
- C. Wyrmoost
- D. Lost Mesa

4. What state is Lost Mesa located in?

- A. Montana
- B. Arizona
- C. Colorado
- D. Utah

5. Who goes with Kendra on the mission to Lost Mesa?

- A. Newel, Doren, and Hugo
- B. Seth, Tanu, and Coulter
- C. Warren, Dougan, and Gavin
- D. Grandpa Sorenson, Lena, and Dale

6. Who is Gavin Rose?

- A. A wizard trapped inside the Quiet Box
- B. A former caretaker of Fablehaven who knows the old manor's secret passages
- C. A satyr who trades gold for batteries
- D. A young dragon tamer who joins the Lost Mesa mission

7. Which two satyrs help Seth at the beginning of the story?

- A. Newel and Doren
- B. Patton and Dougan
- C. Kurisock and Graulas
- D. Cloudwing and Broadhoof

8. What object accidentally brings Patton Burgess into the present?

- A. The Journal of Secrets
- B. The Seeing Stone
- C. The Chronometer
- D. The Sands of Sanctity

9. Who was Patton Burgess?

- A. A member of the Society who steals the Lost Mesa artifact and hides it from the Knights
- B. A former caretaker and famous adventurer connected to Fablehaven's past
- C. A dragon who disguises himself as a human boy
- D. A dark nipsie who starts the plague

10. Who gives herself up near the end to help stop the plague?

- A. Grandma Sorenson
- B. Kendra
- C. Vanessa
- D. Lena

Section 2: Medium11. Why is the shadow plague so dangerous to Fablehaven?

- A. It turns normally safe light creatures into dark beings.
- B. It makes the preserve invisible to every caretaker.
- C. It destroys all magical objects as soon as someone touches them.
- D. It only attacks humans and leaves magical creatures unchanged until sunrise.

12. Why does Kendra's trip to Lost Mesa matter to the larger conflict?

- A. She wants to prove she can run a preserve without adult help.
- B. The Knights hope to recover a hidden artifact before the Society can get it.
- C. She is searching for a cure hidden in Vanessa's old room.
- D. She is trying to hide from the shadow plague until it burns itself out without help.

13. What does Seth discover about himself after defeating the revenant in the previous book?

- A. He can fly whenever fairies are nearby and carry messages over the preserve walls.
- B. He can open the Quiet Box without help.
- C. He has new abilities connected to shadows.
- D. He becomes unable to see magical creatures.

14. Why do the caretakers begin to lose control of Fablehaven?

- A. The plague spreads quickly and turns trusted light creatures into threats.
- B. The fairies refuse to help because they no longer recognize Kendra.
- C. The Sphinx orders them to abandon the preserve immediately and seal the gates behind them.
- D. Kendra takes the only key to the preserve when she leaves.

15. What happens to many of Seth's allies when the dark woman attacks at the old manor?

- A. They are trapped inside the Journal of Secrets.
- B. They are sent to Lost Mesa by magic.
- C. They forget who Seth and Kendra are.
- D. They become shadowed but remain good.

16. Why is Patton only able to help for a short time?

- A. He is too wounded from his old battle with the dragon Ranticus.

- B. The Chronometer brings him forward for only three days.
- C. He must stay inside the old manor or vanish.
- D. He loses his memory every morning at sunrise.

17. What does Patton explain about Ephira?

- A. She was secretly one of the Knights of the Dawn sent to test Kendra's loyalty.
- B. She created Lost Mesa to protect the Chronometer.
- C. She is a harmless forest spirit who is blamed by mistake.
- D. She helped unleash the plague while seeking immortality.

18. How is Kurisock connected to the shadow plague?

- A. He is a knight sent to guard the Fairy Queen's shrine after the fairies retreat.
- B. He is a dragon tamer who betrays Gavin at Lost Mesa.
- C. He is a powerful demon whose influence strengthens the plague.
- D. He is the nipsie king who steals Seth's batteries.

19. Why is Seth still useful after others become shadows?

- A. His abilities let him understand shadowed allies and dark creatures.
- B. He can use fairy wings to carry everyone away.
- C. He can command every dark creature to obey him.
- D. He alone remembers the way to Lost Mesa and can guide the Knights through the desert.

20. What makes Vanessa a complicated possible source of help?

- A. She has become one of the darkened brownies and cannot speak clearly anymore.
- B. She may know useful information, but she has already betrayed them.
- C. She refuses to speak unless Kendra gives her the Chronometer.
- D. She has forgotten everything about the Society.

21. What does the Fairy Queen do to help Kendra fight the plague?

- A. She orders every fairy to leave Fablehaven forever.
- B. She turns Seth into a caretaker of Lost Mesa.
- C. She creates a special stone that can help stop the plague.
- D. She sends Kendra back in time to stop Ephira from changing.

22. Why does Lena's choice carry so much weight near the end?

- A. She chooses safety at the naiad pond instead of helping the others when Fablehaven is in danger.
- B. She steals the Chronometer so Patton can stay forever.
- C. She becomes the new leader of the Society of the Evening Star.
- D. She sacrifices herself to help defeat the darkness.

23. What is one major result of the Lost Mesa mission?

- A. Kendra learns Patton had already taken the artifact to Fablehaven.
- B. Gavin reveals that Lost Mesa never had magical creatures.
- C. Kendra discovers that the artifact was hidden at the Sorensons' ordinary home in a locked attic.
- D. Warren decides to leave the Knights of the Dawn permanently.

24. How does the book use the Sphinx to increase the danger?

- A. He becomes a shadow creature who attacks the house.
- B. He is trapped by nipsies and cannot answer any questions.
- C. Trusted friends must face evidence that he may be a traitor.
- D. He openly joins Kurisock before Kendra leaves for Lost Mesa and attacks the Knights himself.

25. What does the final battle require from Kendra, Seth, Patton, and their allies?

- A. A decision to give the Society the artifact in exchange for peace
- B. Courage, cooperation, and sacrifice against an overwhelming enemy
- C. A promise to never return to Fablehaven after the plague ends
- D. A simple trick that lets them avoid all danger without confronting Kurisock or the plague

Section 3: Hard

26. What does Seth's arc in this book show most clearly?

- A. His boldness can become courage when he uses his gifts responsibly.
- B. His rule-breaking no longer has any consequences because his new powers make every risk safe.
- C. He becomes more important than every other character because adults are useless.
- D. He learns that magical creatures should never be trusted under any circumstances.

27. What does Kendra's Lost Mesa mission reveal about her growth?

- A. She is only useful when Grandpa Sorenson gives her exact instructions and keeps every danger predictable.
- B. She would rather avoid every danger than help the Knights.
- C. She no longer needs help from anyone because being fairykind solves every problem.
- D. She is learning to carry responsibility even when she is afraid.

28. Which theme is best shown by Ephira and Kurisock?

- A. Power is safest when joined to impatience and separated from memory, sacrifice, and restraint.
- B. Friendship is strongest when no one keeps secrets.
- C. A desire for life or power can become destructive without wisdom.
- D. Old stories are never important to present problems.

29. How does Patton's visit from the past affect the story?

- A. It connects Fablehaven's hidden history to the present crisis.
- B. It removes the need for Kendra and Seth to make brave choices.
- C. It turns the Lost Mesa mission into an unimportant mistake.
- D. It proves that the current caretakers were wrong about every rule and should abandon the preserve.

30. What is the best explanation of Lena's sacrifice?

- A. She gives up her life mostly because Patton tells her to.
- B. Her love and loyalty move her to bear a costly sacrifice.
- C. She sacrifices herself because she never cared about mortal life.
- D. She wants to prove that naiads are stronger than fairies and deserve to rule the preserve.