

Name: _____ Date: _____ Score: _____ / 30

Reading Comprehension Test

Fablehaven - Book 1

by Brandon Mull

Directions: Circle the letter of the best answer for each question.

Section 1: Easy

1. Who are the two main children who visit Fablehaven?

- A. Maddox and Ruth
- B. Dale and Lena
- C. Kendra and Seth
- D. Warren and Vanessa

2. Whose estate do Kendra and Seth visit while their parents are away?

- A. Their grandparents' estate
- B. A strict boarding school far from home
- C. Their aunt's farm
- D. A summer camp

3. What is Grandpa Sorenson's real job at Fablehaven?

- A. A zoo director
- B. The caretaker of a magical preserve
- C. A professional treasure hunter who collects hidden relics
- D. A retired sea captain

4. What substance lets ordinary people see the magical creatures at Fablehaven?

- A. Honey from the fairies
- B. Water from the pond
- C. Milk
- D. Dust from the attic

5. What is the name of the chicken who is actually Grandma Sorenson?

- A. Goldilocks
- B. Snowflake
- C. Henrietta
- D. Viola the oversized milk cow

6. Who is the housekeeper at Fablehaven?

- A. Muriel
- B. Kendra
- C. Lena
- D. Ruth

7. Who helps Grandpa Sorenson take care of the grounds?

- A. Nero
- B. Dale
- C. Bahumat
- D. Maddox

8. What does Grandpa tell the children they must not enter?

- A. The attic bedroom
- B. The swimming pool
- C. The kitchen after dark
- D. The woods and the barn

9. What special night makes Fablehaven especially dangerous?

- A. Midsummer Eve
- B. Christmas Eve
- C. The first day of school
- D. The winter solstice

10. Which witch becomes a major threat in the story?

- A. Lena
- B. Ruth
- C. Viola the magical cow
- D. Muriel

Section 2: Medium11. Why was Fablehaven created?

- A. To hide ordinary farm animals from hunters and tourists
- B. To protect magical creatures from extinction
- C. To train children to become knights
- D. To make Grandpa Sorenson wealthy

12. What clue does Kendra find inside the Journal of Secrets?

- A. A map to the nearest city
- B. A warning to leave immediately before sunset
- C. A list of chores for Seth
- D. The instruction to drink the milk

13. Why does Seth get into trouble early in the story?

- A. He repeatedly ignores rules and wanders where he should not go
- B. He refuses to speak to Grandpa Sorenson about anything important
- C. He loses all three keys in the pool during a storm
- D. He falls asleep during every warning Grandpa gives

14. What does Seth do on Midsummer Eve that causes disaster?

- A. He steals Nero's seeing stone
- B. He breaks the Journal of Secrets
- C. He opens the window after being warned not to
- D. He feeds Viola the wrong kind of grain after midnight

15. What do Kendra and Seth discover after Midsummer Eve?

- A. Their parents have arrived early
- B. The preserve has turned completely ordinary and safe again
- C. The fairies have left gifts on the porch
- D. Grandpa and Lena are missing, and Dale has been turned to stone

16. Why is Kendra better prepared than Seth for many of Fablehaven's dangers?

- A. She tends to listen carefully and respect the rules

- B. She knows magic before arriving at the estate
- C. She is stronger than every creature in the woods and barn
- D. She has already visited Fablehaven many times

17. What does Seth's encounter with the fairy show about the creatures at Fablehaven?

- A. They are only imaginary
- B. They are beautiful but can still be dangerous when mistreated
- C. They always obey children
- D. They disappear whenever people look at them too closely

18. Who is Nero?

- A. A talking horse who guards the barn
- B. A former caretaker of Fablehaven
- C. A troll with a seeing stone
- D. A fairy queen in disguise

19. What happens when the rescue attempt against Muriel's forces fails?

- A. Hugo is destroyed, and Seth and Grandma are captured
- B. Kendra becomes the new caretaker immediately without training
- C. The whole preserve vanishes for a year
- D. Dale wakes up and solves the problem alone

20. What role does Viola's milk play near the end of the story?

- A. It changes imps back into fairies
- B. It gives Kendra a way to call for fairy help
- C. It turns Bahumat into stone forever after one sip
- D. It repairs Hugo's broken body

21. How does Kendra help defeat Muriel and Bahumat?

- A. She uses a sword hidden in the attic
- B. She tricks Nero into fighting for her
- C. She opens every gate in the preserve
- D. She summons fairy warriors for help

22. What gift or change does Kendra receive from the fairies afterward?

- A. She can see magical creatures without drinking the milk
- B. She becomes the official queen of Fablehaven for the summer
- C. She is turned into a naiad like Lena
- D. She gains the power to command trolls

23. What does Lena's story reveal about her past?

- A. She was once Muriel's apprentice
- B. She used to be a naiad before choosing mortal life
- C. She was born outside the preserve and cannot see magic
- D. She secretly owns the Fablehaven estate

24. What is one reason Grandpa Sorenson gives strict rules at Fablehaven?

- A. He dislikes children having fun
- B. He wants Kendra and Seth to leave early
- C. The rules help keep dangerous magical forces contained
- D. The rules are only old traditions with no real purpose anymore

25. What does the book show about curiosity?

- A. Curiosity is always evil and should never be used
- B. Curiosity matters only when adults approve every question and every discovery
- C. Curiosity is useful when joined with wisdom, but reckless curiosity can cause harm
- D. Curiosity makes Seth the caretaker by the end of the book

Section 3: Hard

26. Kendra and Seth respond to Fablehaven's rules in very different ways. What is the best comparison?

- A. Kendra is cautious and obedient, while Seth is adventurous but often reckless
- B. Kendra is selfish, while Seth never makes mistakes
- C. Both children reject every warning from the beginning of their visit
- D. Seth understands the preserve better than Grandpa

27. What larger idea is shown by the preserve's rules and consequences?

- A. Rules exist only to make childhood boring
- B. Clear boundaries can protect people from dangers they do not fully understand
- C. Magic makes moral choices unnecessary
- D. Adults in fantasy stories are always wrong about what children can handle

28. Why is Kendra's final act of courage important to her character arc?

- A. She proves that fear disappears when a person is brave
- B. She becomes powerful enough that she no longer needs help
- C. She does the frightening right thing when her family and Fablehaven need her
- D. She wins because she is naturally more magical than everyone else in the preserve

29. What does Muriel's role in the story most clearly represent?

- A. The harmless fun of disobeying small rules
- B. The desire to protect weak creatures from danger even at great personal cost
- C. A teacher who wants Seth and Kendra to mature
- D. Evil that becomes more dangerous when people make careless bargains with it

30. By the end of the book, how have Kendra and Seth changed?

- A. They decide never to trust Grandpa again
- B. They become bored with magic and ask to go home
- C. They no longer care what happens to the preserve or their family
- D. They have both learned that Fablehaven is real, dangerous, and worth protecting