- B. She wants to use him in her own plan to betray the Sphinx.
- C. She is trying to make Bracken trust the Sphinx again.
- D. She needs Seth to restore the centaur treaty at Fablehaven.

15. Why does Vanessa's news about Grandpa and Grandma Larsen matter?

- A. It reveals that they are alive and working undercover at Living Mirage.
- B. It proves that they left the Knights years earlier and had been hiding from every magical conflict.
- C. It explains why Vanessa stole the Translocator from Fablehaven.
- D. It shows that they are secretly members of the Singing Sisters.

16. What happens when Kendra's group tries to rescue Seth with the Translocator?

- A. They rescue Seth but lose the Oculus in the process.

- B. They defeat the Sphinx and close Living Mirage forever.
- C. They accidentally teleport to Shoreless Isle before finding Seth or learning where the Sphinx is hiding.
- D. They are captured, giving the Society more of what it wants.

17. Why does Seth's use of the Sands of Sanctity become a major turning point?

- A. The Sands make every demon in the preserve harmless, which causes the heroes to lower their guard too soon.
- B. They make Seth unable to use shadow-charmer powers.
- C. Healing Graulas allows Graulas to betray Fablehaven with renewed strength.
- D. They restore Bracken's missing horn without any danger.

18. Why does Seth bargain with the Singing Sisters?

- A. He wants them to teach him how to read Patton's journal.
- B. He needs their help finding a weapon powerful enough for the coming battle.
- C. He is trying to rescue Warren from the Quiet Box.
- D. He hopes they can turn every demon in Zzyzx into a creature of light before the prison opens.

19. What makes the Eternals important to the Society's plan?

- A. They guard the Fairy Queen shrine and can remove the distraction spell from Shoreless Isle if all three agree.
- B. They know the location of every hidden preserve.
- C. They can open the Translocator only during an eclipse.
- D. Their deaths are part of opening the demon prison.

20. How does the Sphinx's role change near the end of the story?

- A. He helps the heroes after Graulas takes power from him.
- B. He becomes caretaker of Fablehaven and keeps the artifacts for the Sorenson family.
- C. He destroys the Fairy Queen's realm before the battle.
- D. He replaces Bracken as the last unicorn.

Section 3: Hard

21. Which choice best explains why Seth's kindness to Graulas becomes so costly?

- A. Seth forgets that the Sands can only heal humans.
- B. Seth trusts Graulas's suffering without seeing how dangerous Graulas will be if healed.
- C. Seth gives Graulas the sword Vasilis before learning how to use it.
- D. Seth heals Graulas only after Graulas swears a binding oath to protect Fablehaven and surrender the Chronometer.

22. What is unusual about Bracken's situation when Seth first meets him?

- A. He is a dragon pretending to be a prisoner so he can spy on the Sphinx.
- B. He is an Eternal who cannot speak until Zzyzx opens.
- C. He is a unicorn trapped in human form because he gave up a horn long ago.
- D. He is a wizard who created the Translocator, hid it at Obsidian Waste, and forgot how to use it.

23. Why does Patton Burgess's message matter after Coulter dies?

- A. It points Seth toward desperate preparations when ordinary plans have failed.
- B. It tells Seth that Coulter secretly caused Graulas's betrayal.
- C. It gives Seth a simple way to close Zzyzx without facing danger.
- D. It tells Seth to wait at Fablehaven until the adults return from Shoreless Isle with the artifacts.

24. Why is Vasilis the right kind of weapon for Seth to seek?

- A. It can teleport the heroes to any preserve without using an artifact.
- B. It carries ancient power suited for enemies such as demons and dark wizards, not just ordinary armed guards.
- C. It removes the need for Bracken, the astrids, or the Fairy Queen.

D. It has enough power to fight enemies ordinary weapons could not stop.

25. What does the heroes' failure to save the last Eternals show about the story's conflict?

- A. The heroes discover that the Eternals were a distraction and had nothing to do with opening Zzyzx.
- B. Kendra and Seth stop caring about the fate of the world.
- C. The heroes do not win every race, so they must keep adapting when Zzyzx opens.
- D. The Society decides to close Zzyzx after all.

26. Why is the Fairy Queen's final plan such a major sacrifice?

- A. She gives the Sphinx the Font of Immortality and leaves the battle.
- B. She uses her own realm as the new trap for the demons.
- C. She abandons Kendra and Seth so she can protect only the fairies.
- D. She destroys every magical preserve except Fablehaven.

27. Which sequence matches Seth's path toward Vasilis?

- A. He steals it from the Sphinx, hides it at Living Mirage, then gives it to Nagi Luna.
- B. He asks Bracken for it, receives it from the Fairy Queen, and trades it for the Translocator.
- C. He ignores Patton's message, refuses the Singing Sisters, follows Graulas, and receives the sword from Nagi Luna.
- D. He hears Patton's message, bargains with the Singing Sisters, and follows their clue to the Totem Wall.

28. What does Graulas's takeover of the Society reveal?

- A. The Sphinx was never actually working against the heroes.
- B. Power among villains can shift suddenly when someone stronger seizes the moment.
- C. The Society's leaders are safe from betrayal because they serve demons.
- D. It proves that the Society's leaders are protected from betrayal once demons begin obeying them.

29. How do Kendra and Seth's final roles fit their growth across the series?

- A. Kendra's tie to the Fairy Queen and Seth's shadow-charmer courage both become necessary in the final battle.
- B. Kendra wins only by avoiding magic, while Seth wins only by refusing help from anyone.
- C. Both children step aside so the adults can solve the crisis without them.
- D. The final battle proves their earlier gifts no longer matter because ordinary weapons and adult plans solve the crisis without them.

30. Which choice best describes the ending at Fablehaven?

- A. The ending leaves the Sorensons unable to return to Fablehaven, visit the shrine, or speak with Bracken again.
- B. Graulas becomes the new caretaker, but promises not to harm anyone.
- C. Fablehaven is restored as a home base, and Kendra sees that Bracken is still part of her future.
- D. The Sphinx keeps all five artifacts and rules Shoreless Isle.
