Name: _____ Date: _____ Score: _____ / 30

Reading Comprehension Test

The Voyage of the Dawn Treader - The Chronicles of Narnia
by C. S. Lewis

Directions: Circle the letter of the best answer for each question.

Section 1: Easy

1. Which cousin is pulled into Narnia with Lucy and Edmund?

A. Peter Pevensie
B. Digory Kirke
C. Eustace Clarence Scrubb
D. Puddleglum the Marsh-wiggle

2. What is the name of Caspian's ship?

A. The Dawn Treader
B. The Silver Swan
C. The Sea Arrow
D. The Star of Narnia

3. What is the main purpose of Caspian's voyage east?

A. To find a new capital for Narnia
B. To trade with Calormen
C. To find the seven lost lords
D. To conquer the Lone Islands

4. What happens to Eustace after he slips away to rest among dragon treasure?

A. He falls into an enchanted sleep
B. He turns into a dragon
C. He becomes invisible
D. He loses his memory

5. What makes the Dufflepuds hard to see when the travelers first meet them?

A. They have been made invisible
B. They live inside a thick enchanted fog
C. They wear silver masks at all times
D. They hide in caves beneath the sea

6. What does Lucy find in Coriakin's house that can undo the Dufflepuds' invisibility?

A. A magic bell
B. A map of the eastern sea
C. A spell book
D. A dragon scale

7. What is frightening about the island covered in darkness?

A. It is ruled by a giant
B. It freezes anyone who lands there
C. Its trees speak in riddles
D. Dreams there come true

8. What form does Aslan take when he helps guide the ship away from the Dark Island?

A. A golden eagle
B. An albatross
C. A white horse
D. A sea serpent

9. Where are three of the missing lords found asleep?

A. In a cave beneath a volcano
B. In a castle on the Lone Islands
C. On a ship trapped in ice
D. At a table on Ramandu's island

10. Who sails east alone in a small boat at the end of the book?

A. Reepicheep
B. King Caspian
C. Lord Drinian
D. Eustace Scrubb

Section 2: Medium

11. Why do Lucy, Edmund, and Eustace first arrive in Narnia?

A. They open a wardrobe in a country house
B. They are pulled through a painting of a ship
C. They follow a talking owl through the woods
D. They sail there from England during a storm

12. Why does Caspian stop the slave trade on the Lone Islands?

A. He needs more sailors for his crew
B. The governor asks him to take over
C. He wants to punish Lord Bern personally
D. It violates Narnian law and freedom

13. How does Eustace help the crew while he is a dragon on Dragon Island?

A. He brings a pine tree to replace the broken mast
B. He teaches the crew to read a map of the eastern seas
C. He discovers a harbor on a distant eastern island
D. He becomes Caspian's official royal messenger

14. Why is Lucy tempted to use a beauty spell from Coriakin's book?

A. She wants to make the Dufflepuds visible
B. She hopes to become a better sailor
C. She imagines being admired by everyone
D. She wants to turn Eustace back into a boy

15. Before taking the Dawn Treader farther east, what does Caspian say he must consider?

A. Whether the Dufflepuds will join the voyage from their island
B. Whether the crew knowingly agrees to continue
C. Whether Lord Bern will rule the Lone Islands for Caspian
D. Whether the sea serpent has followed the ship eastward

16. According to Ramandu, what is required to break the sleeping lords' enchantment?

A. The Stone Knife must be thrown into the sea

B. The sleepers must eat from Aslan's Table
C. All seven lords must return to Narnia together with their swords
D. The ship must sail east and leave one person behind

17. Why can Lucy, Edmund, and Eustace not stay in Narnia after this voyage?

A. The Dawn Treader has no room for them
B. Caspian sends them back as official messengers
C. They have grown too old for future Narnian visits
D. They promise to guard the eastern Lone Islands

18. Why is Caspian hesitant about taking the whole crew farther toward the World's End?

A. They signed on to seek the lost lords, not the rim of the world
B. He wants to escape being king of Narnia forever
C. He believes a treasure is buried at the end of the world
D. He is searching for a larger royal shipyard

19. What happens to something that touches the pool on Deathwater Island?

A. It lets ships sail without wind
B. It cures every wound immediately
C. It makes anyone completely invisible
D. It turns into solid gold

20. What change in Eustace is most visible after he is freed from being a dragon?

A. He refuses to speak to anyone
B. He becomes more helpful and less selfish
C. He decides he dislikes Narnia even more
D. He tries to become the captain of the ship

Section 3: Hard

21. Which event most directly helps Eustace understand how unpleasant he has been to other people?

A. Being made captain of the ship for a day
B. Losing a contest with Edmund on deck
C. Reading Coriakin's spell book in secret
D. Living as a dragon who cannot explain himself

22. Why does Caspian's argument with Edmund near the end matter to the story?

A. It shows that even a good goal does not excuse leaving a duty behind
B. It proves Edmund no longer trusts Caspian as king
C. It causes the entire crew to turn back to Narnia
D. It reveals that Caspian wants the throne of England

23. What makes Lucy's decision about the beauty spell different from simply being afraid to use magic?

A. She has already promised never to read any spell in the book
B. She recognizes that the wish to be admired could harm others
C. Coriakin tells her every spell in the book is dangerous
D. The spell can only be used by a dragon in flight

24. Which choice best explains why Reepicheep is able to continue east when the others cannot?

A. He has been chosen as the next King of Narnia
B. He knows a secret route back to England
C. His deepest desire is to reach Aslan's country

D. He is the only sailor who can steer the Dawn Treader

25. What makes the Dark Island so dangerous to the Dawn Treader crew?

A. The island is guarded by a giant
B. The water freezes anyone who enters it
C. The crew cannot find a way to steer home
D. Nightmares dreamed there can become real

26. How does Ramandu help Lord Rhoop after the Dawn Treader reaches his island?

A. He sends Rhoop back to Narnia at once
B. He gives Rhoop dreamless sleep beside the other lords
C. He asks Rhoop to guide the ship farther east
D. He makes Rhoop captain of the Dawn Treader

27. What does Aslan's change of Eustace back into a boy show about Eustace's attempt to improve himself?

A. He needs help beyond what he can do by himself
B. He needs a better sword and a suit of armor
C. He must return to the dragon cave completely alone
D. He has to become invisible before the crew sees him

28. Why does Ramandu's explanation of the sleeping lords give the voyage a new direction?

A. It tells Caspian to return to Narnia at once
B. It reveals that Lord Bern is actually a traitor
C. It sends the crew back to the Lone Islands for supplies
D. It connects their rescue to a task at the World's End

29. How do Lucy and Edmund's farewells from Narnia differ from Reepicheep's?

A. Lucy and Edmund choose to remain on the ship until morning
B. Lucy and Edmund are sent home, while Reepicheep goes farther east by choice
C. Lucy and Edmund become rulers of the eastern Lone Islands
D. Lucy and Edmund return because they are afraid of the open sea

30. Which idea is best supported by several episodes in the voyage, including Eustace's change and Lucy's temptation?

A. The strongest person should command every journey
B. Travel is only worthwhile when treasure is finally found
C. Character is tested by what a person does with desire and fear
D. A person should never question an old tradition or rule