

Name: _____ Date: _____ Score: _____ / 30

Reading Comprehension Test

The Way of the Wilderking - The Wilderking Trilogy, Book 3
by Jonathan Rogers

Directions: Circle the letter of the best answer for each question.

Section 1: Easy

1. Where has Aidan been living before he returns to Corenwald?

- A. At King Darrow's court in Tambluff Castle
- B. In Feechiefen Swamp with the Feechiefolk
- C. Across the sea in the Pyrthen Empire
- D. In Greasy Cave with the miners

2. Who is Dobro Turtlebane?

- A. A Pyrthen scout who betrays his commander
- B. A jealous nobleman who wants Darrow's crown
- C. Aidan's Feechie friend and companion
- D. The captain of the Aidanite soldiers

3. What group has formed among the Corenwalders while Aidan is away?

- A. The Aidanites
- B. The New Pyrthens
- C. The Swamp Guards
- D. The Errolson Council

4. What do the Aidanites believe Aidan is destined to do?

- A. Return to Feechiefen and never again enter Corenwald
- B. Become a Pyrthen general and conquer the Eastern Frontier
- C. Replace Bayard as the only Truthspeaker in the kingdom
- D. Overthrow King Darrow and become the Wilderking

5. What is Aidan's own attitude toward rebellion against King Darrow?

- A. He wants to lead it immediately.
- B. He refuses to seek it because he wants to remain loyal.
- C. He plans to let Dobro and the swamp council decide the whole matter for him.
- D. He joins only because Maynard orders him to.

6. Which enemy empire threatens Corenwald again?

- A. The Pyrthen Empire
- B. The Bonifay League
- C. The Feechiefen clans
- D. The Sinking Canyon tribes

7. Which old friend of Aidan's is King Darrow's son?

- A. Percy
- B. Milum
- C. Steren
- D. Tombro, the Feechie chief at the swamp council

8. Who is Percy in relation to Aidan?

- A. Aidan's enemy from Pyrth
- B. Darrow's royal messenger
- C. A Feechie chief from Bug Neck
- D. Aidan's brother

9. Where have members of Aidan's family spent much of their hard time in hiding?

- A. Sinking Canyons
- B. Tambluff Harbor
- C. Bonifay Market
- D. The Frog Orchid marsh

10. What ancient song or prophecy do the Aidanites connect with Aidan?

- A. The Ballad of Greidawl
- B. The Song of the Frog Orchid
- C. The Wilderking Chant
- D. The March of the Miner-Scouts

Section 2: Medium11. Why is Aidan troubled when he first learns about the Aidanites?

- A. They have forgotten how to fight the Pyrthens.
- B. They are all Feechiefolk pretending to be civilizers.
- C. They refuse to believe that Darrow has ever done wrong or that Corenwald is in danger.
- D. They are using Aidan's name for a rebellion he never chose.

12. Why does Darrow become especially dangerous to Aidan?

- A. He wants Aidan to marry into the Pyrthen royal family.
- B. He thinks Aidan has stolen the frog orchid.
- C. He believes Aidan's popularity threatens his throne.
- D. He needs Aidan to build a new castle in Feechiefen.

13. Why are the Aidanites still important even though their thinking about rebellion is dangerous?

- A. They know the secret location of every frog orchid in Feechiefen.
- B. They may be the only organized force left to defend Corenwald.
- C. They have promised to make Dobro the next king of Corenwald.
- D. They can defeat the Pyrthens without needing courage or wisdom.

14. What does the opening rescue of a captured civilizer show about Aidan?

- A. He cares only about Feechiefolk now.
- B. He still feels responsible for people in danger.
- C. He wants revenge against every Corenwelder who feared him.
- D. He has stopped trusting anyone from his old life.

15. Why does Aidan not simply claim the throne when many people want him to?

- A. He is too young to understand what kingship means.
- B. He knows Dobro has a stronger legal claim and could easily win over every Feechie clan.
- C. He is afraid the Feechiefolk will stop liking him.
- D. He does not want ambition to replace faithfulness and duty.

16. How does Dobro often help Aidan during tense moments?

- A. His loyalty and wild humor keep courage alive.

- B. He gives formal speeches that impress Darrow's court.
- C. He commands the Pyrthen army from inside their camp.
- D. He persuades Bayard to cancel the Wilderking prophecy.

17. What does the conflict between civilizers and Feechiefolk test throughout the story?

- A. Whether swamps can be drained faster than forests can be cut
- B. Whether different peoples can learn to value one another
- C. Whether the Feechiefolk can become exactly like Darrow's nobles
- D. Whether the Pyrthens should be allowed to rule both groups

18. Why does Aidan have to confront the Aidanites instead of just accepting their praise?

- A. Their praise makes him forget his own name.
- B. Their camp is secretly ruled by Bayard.
- C. They refuse to fight unless he promises them treasure and a place in Darrow's castle.
- D. Their loyalty can become pride, violence, or treason if it is not corrected.

19. What makes the Pyrthen threat different from the trouble caused by the Aidanites?

- A. The Pyrthens are an outside military enemy, not confused followers from Corenwald.
- B. The Pyrthens want only to protect Feechiefen from Darrow and have no interest in Corenwald's throne.
- C. The Pyrthens believe Aidan should be crowned at once.
- D. The Pyrthens are less dangerous because they have no army.

20. Why is Steren's friendship with Aidan painful but important?

- A. Steren has become a Pyrthen and cannot return home.
- B. Steren connects Aidan to Darrow's family even while Darrow treats Aidan as an enemy.
- C. Steren believes Aidan should abandon Corenwald and live only in Feechiefen with the swamp clans.
- D. Steren is the one who first invents the Aidanite movement.

Section 3: Hard

21. Why does Aidan refuse to lead a rebellion against Darrow right away?

- A. Darrow is still the king, and Aidan does not want to grab power for himself.
- B. Darrow has already handed the crown to the Feechiefolk.
- C. Aidan wants the Pyrthens to choose Corenwald's next king.
- D. Aidan believes Corenwald no longer needs a king.

22. What problem does Aidan face because the Aidanites use his name?

- A. They refuse to believe Aidan ever lived in Feechiefen Swamp.
- B. They try to make Dobro king instead of Aidan.
- C. They secretly join the Pyrthen army before Aidan returns.
- D. They are ready to act for him even though he did not start their movement.

23. Which action shows Aidan trying to be humble about becoming the Wilderking?

- A. He demands that every Aidanite kneel to him at once.
- B. He refuses to grab the throne just because people praise him.
- C. He asks the Pyrthens to crown him before the battle.
- D. He sends Dobro away so the Feechiefolk cannot help him.

24. Why does the Wilderking prophecy create tension for Aidan?

- A. It says Percy must become king instead of Darrow.
- B. It proves the Pyrthens will never attack Corenwald again.
- C. It points toward Aidan's future, but he still has to choose the right way to act.

D. It tells Aidan to leave Corenwald and never return.

25. What makes Darrow dangerous to Aidan even though Darrow is king?

- A. Darrow's fear and jealousy make him see Aidan as a threat.
- B. Darrow has secretly become a Pyrthen commander.
- C. Darrow wants Dobro to become king of Corenwald.
- D. Darrow refuses to defend Corenwald from any enemy.

26. Which contrast between Aidan and Darrow is clearest in the story?

- A. Aidan wants the Pyrthens to rule, while Darrow protects Feechiefen.
- B. Aidan hides from every danger, while Darrow fights bravely beside him.
- C. Aidan forgets Corenwald, while Darrow welcomes his enemies.
- D. Aidan grows toward serving others, while Darrow becomes ruled by fear.

27. Why do both Feechiefolk and civilizers matter in the final story?

- A. The Feechiefolk replace every civilizer in Corenwald.
- B. The civilizers defeat the Pyrthens without needing any help.
- C. Corenwald needs both kinds of people, not just one group.
- D. The two groups agree to leave Corenwald to the Pyrthens.

28. What does Bayard mean when he tells Aidan to live the unfolding life?

- A. Aidan should wait until every future event is explained.
- B. Aidan should obey faithfully in the next step without knowing everything ahead.
- C. Aidan should refuse leadership whenever it feels uncomfortable.
- D. Aidan should let Darrow make every decision for him.

29. How does Darrow's fear affect the kingdom?

- A. It makes him trust Aidan more quickly.
- B. It helps him welcome the Feechiefolk into court.
- C. It twists his judgment and makes him treat Aidan as an enemy.
- D. It convinces him to give the throne to Percy at once.

30. By the end of the trilogy, what has Aidan learned about becoming the Wilderking?

- A. He must defeat every enemy without help.
- B. He should prove Darrow was never dangerous.
- C. He must leave both Corenwald and Feechiefen behind.
- D. Leadership is a calling to serve, not a prize to grab.