

Name: _____ Date: _____ Score: _____ / 30

Reading Comprehension Test

Wingfeather Saga, Book 3: The Monster in the Hollows
by Andrew Peterson

Directions: Circle the letter of the best answer for each question.

Section 1: Easy

1. Where do the Wingfeathers travel to at the beginning of Book 3?

- A. The Green Hollows
- B. The Ice Prairies
- C. Torrboro
- D. Skree

2. What is Kalmar Wingfeather's royal title?

- A. Throne Warden
- B. High King
- C. Song Maiden
- D. Sea Captain

3. As Throne Warden, what is Janner's primary duty?

- A. To command the army
- B. To sail the seas
- C. To protect the king
- D. To rule the kingdom

4. What does Kalmar look like after his transformation?

- A. A lizard Fang
- B. A bat Fang
- C. A stone giant
- D. A wolf-like Fang

5. What is Leeli Wingfeather's special role in the royal family?

- A. Song Maiden
- B. High Queen
- C. Chief Warrior
- D. Throne Warden

6. What instrument does Leeli play?

- A. Lute
- B. Drum
- C. Whistleharp
- D. Flute

7. Who is the Wingfeather children's grandfather?

- A. Artham Wingfeather
- B. Podo Helmer
- C. Oskar N. Reteep
- D. Esben Wingfeather

8. What is the name of the main city in the Green Hollows?

- A. Torrboro
- B. Skree
- C. Dugtown
- D. Ban Rona

9. Who is the Wingfeather children's uncle?

- A. Artham Wingfeather
- B. Podo Helmer
- C. Oskar N. Reteep
- D. Gnag the Nameless

10. What word do the Hollowsfolk use for a creature that is part human and part Fang?

- A. A Shadow Beast
- B. A Cloven
- C. A Fang Lord
- D. A Stone Keeper

Section 2: Medium

11. Why are the people of Ban Rona suspicious and hostile toward Kalmar when the family arrives?

- A. Because he claims to be king
- B. Because he is from Skree
- C. Because he stole food
- D. Because he looks like a Fang

12. What school does Janner attend in Ban Rona?

- A. The Durgan Guild
- B. The Silverpit Academy
- C. The Watchers' Hall
- D. The King's School

13. Who served as the Throne Warden before Janner took on that role?

- A. Podo Helmer
- B. Esben Wingfeather
- C. Artham Wingfeather
- D. Oskar N. Reteep

14. What unusual physical features does Artham Wingfeather have as a result of his transformation?

- A. He has a wolf's head
- B. He has talons for hands
- C. He has scales on his skin
- D. He has wings instead of arms

15. What effect can Leeli's music have on Fangs?

- A. It makes them stronger
- B. It turns them to stone
- C. It has absolutely no effect on them
- D. It can calm or weaken them

16. Why does Nia Wingfeather lead her family to the Green Hollows specifically?

- A. Because it is her family's ancestral home and a refuge from the Fangs

- B. Because Janner asked to go there
- C. Because the king commanded it
- D. Because it is the farthest place from Gnag

17. Where does Sara Cobbler spend much of her time during the events of Book 3?

- A. In Ban Rona with the Wingfeathers
- B. In the Green Hollows wilderness
- C. In Dugtown
- D. At sea on a ship

18. What role does Sara Cobbler take on among the children who escaped the Fork Factory?

- A. She abandons them to fend for themselves
- B. She joins the Fangs
- C. She becomes their enemy
- D. She becomes a leader and organizer for the group

19. What is the biggest reason Kalmar has difficulty being accepted by the Hollowsfolk?

- A. He refuses to speak to anyone
- B. He is part-Fang in appearance, which they associate with evil
- C. He challenged their chief to a fight
- D. He broke their laws on arrival

20. How does Janner feel about his role as Throne Warden — protecting his brother rather than being king himself?

- A. He struggles with it but ultimately grows to embrace his duty
- B. He is always completely happy and proud about it
- C. He completely refuses the role
- D. He ignores the role throughout the story

21. What happened to Esben Wingfeather, the children's father?

- A. He was killed fighting Fangs in battle
- B. He was imprisoned in Torrboro
- C. He was transformed into a Cloven
- D. He sailed away and was never heard from again

22. Who is ultimately revealed to be the monster that has been terrorizing the Green Hollows?

- A. A Fang soldier sent by Gnag
- B. Esben Wingfeather
- C. Kalmar
- D. Artham Wingfeather

23. How does Kalmar try to prove himself worthy to the people of Ban Rona despite their deep distrust?

- A. By demonstrating courage and loyalty regardless of his appearance
- B. By winning a fighting tournament
- C. By using his Fang powers to protect them
- D. By sailing away to find help

24. How would you best describe the Hollowsfolk's attitude toward fighting and physical strength?

- A. They prefer peaceful negotiation above all else
- B. They rely entirely on magic rather than strength
- C. They avoid conflict at all costs
- D. They are a warrior people who highly value courage and toughness

25. Janner faces social challenges at the Durgan Guild while Kalmar is kept apart from Ban Rona society.

What does this parallel suggest?

- A. That Janner's problems are more important than Kalmar's
- B. That the Green Hollows is a perfectly fair society
- C. Both brothers must prove themselves in different ways in order to belong
- D. That school is far harder than being a king

Section 3: Hard

26. Kalmar struggles throughout Book 3 to control his wolf-Fang nature. What theme does this struggle most powerfully represent?

- A. That people transformed by evil can never truly be saved
- B. That physical strength is the most important quality in a leader
- C. That identity and character are defined by our choices, not our circumstances
- D. That kings must always appear powerful and in control

27. When it is revealed that Esben is the monster in the hollows, how does this reframe the meaning of the book's title?

- A. It shows the title was only ever about Kalmar
- B. It has no real effect — the monster is still just a threat
- C. It proves that all fathers eventually become dangerous
- D. The 'monster' is actually a father consumed by grief and dark transformation — making the title both literal and heartbreaking

28. Janner is the eldest brother yet must serve as protector to his younger brother, the king. What does this role-reversal suggest about the nature of true leadership?

- A. That leadership is about service and sacrifice rather than status or power
- B. That older siblings should never hold positions of authority
- C. That younger brothers are always better leaders than older ones
- D. That Janner is the weakest of the three children

29. The Hollowsfolk initially reject Kalmar entirely based on his appearance as a Cloven. What real-world concept does this situation most directly reflect?

- A. The natural danger of wolves in the wild
- B. The importance of military training for young people
- C. Prejudice and discrimination based on outward appearance
- D. The value of keeping dangerous animals away from cities

30. By the end of Book 3, the Wingfeathers have suffered tremendous loss yet remain a unified family. What does Andrew Peterson seem to be arguing about family through this story?

- A. That families should always keep their struggles private
- B. That love and loyalty within a family can endure even the darkest transformations and losses
- C. That children must obey their parents without question
- D. That family bonds are easily broken under intense pressure